“This team was a real good ballclub. Their defense was terrific. Jim “Tank” Reed really drove the ball. He was the hardest hitter we ever had. I hated to pitch batting practice against him. Jerry Morgan also matured as a pitcher. John Heft threw what I called a knuckle ball, but he had another name for it and he was a decent pitcher for us. Bobby Hughes was a real sparkplug. This was Dick England’s freshmen year and this team was one of the best I had along with the ’57 team.”
